THE REIGN OF THE GANGS.

READING IN COURT THE ASTOUNDING RECORD OF FIFE RUFFIANS.

Thieres and Fostpade Bully Sentenced, ba Not Ponished Citizens Knucked Down and Robbes by Thugs Out on Bull-Defects to the Low that Make Robbers Botd. Representatives of half a dozen of the gange that have terrorized the east side of the ety in the vicinity of Yorkville for years were arraigned before Justice Duffy, in the Fiftynigh street police court, yesterday, and their story a a striking commentary on the administration of criminal justice in New York, parneularly with reference to the value of bonds to keep the pence or for good behavior. The special occasion of the arrests was a highway poblery committed in Seventy-eighth street ast Saturday night, when Bernard Flood, returning home from work with his week's rages in his pocket, was met by half a dozen scandrels, who insisted upon his giving them money to "work the growler," When he refused the gang set upon him, knocked him down and kicked him almost to death, and then walked off with his week's wares,

The long beats that policemen are required to ever in Capt. Gunner's pre-inct give the range many opportunities for such exploits as this. It is of little avail to arrest the members of the gangs and compel them to find security for good behavior. They seem to be able to for good contents, and to be soon out again, comget the security, and to be soon out again, commiting their depreciations with impunity.

Edward Whalen, another of the prisoners, has as a motathe history. He belongs to the Eckey Dooley Gank. In the viennty of Seventhen street and East Hiver where the canglocates among the rocks and shantles. Whalen was at the age of 15, sent to the House of Refuge for burguary on March 3, 1879. In August, 1879 he got fourteen days in the City Prison for being drunk and Historierly. On June 14, 1882, barried drunk and Historierly. On June 14, 1882 two months for larceny. On March 4, 1882, barried to find $900 half to keep the peace, and fined $10 for assault and battery. On July 5, 1883, ordered to find $900 half to keep the peace, and fined $10 for assault and battery. On July 24, 1883, $10 fine and ordered to find $900 bonds to keep the peace. Of course his ball in the early part of the month must have been forfeited, or he would not have been out, committing other offences. Who bailed him? Who bethin out to previous the community again? On Dec. 19, 1883, he was convicted of burglary and sentenced to two years in the State prison. He dollingt serve his time out of he could not have been arraigned yeaterday. The question is not only who let him out before, but who will let him out now. Justice Duffy ordered him to find security for his good behavior for a year. Who will give the security? Whose bond will be forfeited? Whose daily is it to prosecute the bond? I sa bond in such cases anything more than a fence?

It would take the power of a legislative committee or a court to find out the facts of these bases. They are the counterpart of what is gong on in the police courts every day. Petty going on in the police courts every day. Petry Manders are sharply punished and burly rufflans escape through the meetium of bail bonds, which the Police Justices are compelled to receive by the law as it stands.

"Among Whalen's associates," said Detective Martin, were the Carberry brothers. Book Carberry has done time, and Mike Carberry was shot by Detective Valelay and escaped from the hospital. He was subsequently arrested and got two years, Another of the gang is Buil Allen, who has done two years time for burglary in a butcher store in blaty-first street, having been caught by Detective Campbell in the act. Whalen has been convicted seven times. Justice Duffy ordered him to find security for good behavior for a year. Who will golds security?"

Another of these romarkable criminals was Henry McQuillan, whom Flood identified as one of his assailants, McQuillan has done five years time for burglary in a hardware store in Seventy-eighth street. He served his time, and soon after he got out assaulted Officer Ward, and got nine months' imprisonment for it. Afterward Detectives Campbell and Martin got him in the act of committing a larceny. He got out about a month ago and went at his old tricks. Justice Duffy heid him in $1,500 bail to answer for the assault on Flood. Who will bail him?

John De Courcey, another of the prisoners, was recognized as having participated in a recent burglary and Justice Duffy held him in $1,000 bail. He belongs to the Tombs gang, which is a terror to respectable people in the vicinity of Fifty-ninth street and First avenue. One of the gang is the famous Jim of bonned, who waited into the station house with a guide in his back, which near of the gang liad planted there, a short time ago. Jim was game, and let the policemen ug away at the knile, although none of them was strong enough to out it out. SPAIN'S QUARREL WITH GERMANT. The Spanish Army and People in a Bellicose Mond-The Talk of Arhitration. Madrid, Aug. 27.-The Ministerial papers have adopted a modified tone, while the op-position journals attack Germany with increased vigor. The result is that seven of the latter papers have been seized and will be prosecuted. Public feeling is more decided than ever against a concession to Germany. The Spanish Government has dismissed several anti-German officials, and has instructed the provincial authorities to suppress anti-German meetings.

The Government has closed the doors of the Army and Navy Club because officers belong-ing to the club bave returned their berman decorations, and because the club has struck from its list of honorary members the names of German officers and that of the Crown of German officers and that of the Crown Prince of Germany. The press and army are disgusted by the amicable attitude that has been suddenly displayed by the Cabinet toward the German Government.

It is reported that Don Carlos has offered the Government the services of 100,000 Carlists to vindicate Snanish honor against Germany. The Caroline islands not seized by Germany will be occupied by Spain as soon as Spanish troops arrive at Yap, the principal island of the group. Anti-German meetings continue in will be occupied by Spain as soon as Spanish troops arrive at Yap, the principal island of the group. Anti-German meetings continue in the provinces.

Bighans, Aug. 27.—A special Commissioner from Spain to confer with the Government regarding the Carolines has arrived in this city. It is rumbred here that King Alfonso has sent in autograph letter to Crown Prince Frederick William asking him to mediate, in order that friendship between Spain and Germany may be maintained. It is also rumbred that King Leopold of Beigium and Emperor Francis Joseph have been asked to act as arbitrator. Prince Bismarck, it is stated, favors the latter, and desiros a decision in favor of Spain to escape from the difficulty.

German official circles here are sanguline that a method of caim adjustment of the difficulty based on the real facts of the case will be reached, and will prevent a rupture of the relations between Germany and Spain. Allowance is made for the difficulty of the situation in which the question places King Alfonso, for it is believed among German diplomats that the Radicals, the Republicans, and the Federalists, supported by the French party in Spain, have combined to foment an anti-German feeling among the Spanish people.

THE AGITATION OFER OLIVIER PAIN. Rockefort Planning Anniber Demonstration

LONDON, Aug. 27 .- The unofficial agitation of the subject of Olivier Pain's alleged murder by British officers continues on both sides of the Channel. In Faris M. He mysteriously hints he is now arranging. He mysteriously hints that at the next meeting he will teach the scoffers a lesson which they will not soon forget. It is reas-writed, and this time on good authority that the French Government indirectly gave Pain a large sum of money, and instructed him to encourage the Mahdo with promises of eventual assistance from France.

In England the agritation is kept up by a few rease zealets, who seem actuated by a desire to discredit the late Government. A handful of old fogues met to-night at the London offices of the Peace Society and resolved to instante an independent inquiry into the circumstances of Pain's denth. They appointed a committee of investigation and adopted resolutions authorizing it to examine the records of the War and for the Marquis of Salisbury is yet to be obtained. These gentlemen will trabably refuse the committee access to the departmental records, as they have already stated that they have no thiormation bearing upon the mission or death of Pain.

FUN IN FULTON MARKET. An Eel that Couldn't be Held Even as Well

"Any one who lifts that eel out of the tank may have it," said Eugene Blackford yesterday to a crowd of persons who stood in Fulton Market before an open squartum, watching a large cel moving gracefully about in the water. It attracted attention because it was not a common looking eel, such as may be bobbed for looking disherman, who had probably caught many cels in his time, asked Mr. Blackford if he was in earnest, and being assured that the offer was made in good faith. he tucked up the sleeve of his pilot jacket, and after briefly explaining to jacket, and after briefly explaining to the crowd the precise manner in which an eel should be grasped to prevent it gliding through the fingers, he plunged his hand into the water to practically illustrate how the thing was done. He seized the eel very artistically, but, with a sharp explosion of blasphemy, he set it go again before he had brought it to the surface. The eel swam around indifferently. It had evidently grown accustomed to such experiences. The fisherman followed it with his eyes. "It stung me bad," was the only explanation he cared to offer to the wondering spectators. Just then a whistling boy came up, and looked at the eel because the others were looking at it. "I don't see anything uncommon in him," he said, contemptuously. "I've ketched bigber once than that."

Say, Bob, "said the fisherman, struck with an idea, "pick that eel out of the tank and follow me down South street with it, and I'll give you a quarter."

Without stopping to make any inquiries as

Say, Boo, said the isserman, struck with an idea. Pick that sei out of the tank and follow me down South street with it, and I'll give you a quaster."

Without stopping to make any inquiries as to the legitimacy of the offer, the independent lad grasted the eet. He literated it immediately, and uttered a yell that brought in the policeman who twirls his club just outside the fish market, to see what the matter was.

Later in the day many persons touched the sei and tested its curious powers. After the contact some sirieked, some laughed, and some looked frightened, but none essayed to meddle with it a second time. New comers continued to touch it, until Mr. Biackford, fearful that its vitality might be exhausted, put it into a high closed tank, and pasted this legend upon the glass: Gymnotus, or electric eel. The tank contained several hell benders, and the sed shocked them very much, and caused them to spring around in the liveliest manner. It was given to Fish Commissioner Blackford by Mr. Donaid Burns of IIT Boosevelt street, who received it early yesterday morning from the Amazon Ever. Capt. Bears brought it with him in the steamship Finance. It is rather a handsome creature, and a great point in its favor is that it keeps its mouth always shut, except at meal times, and seems to breathe through two rows of holes on its head and neck. It is about 25, feet long, and rather disproportionately thick. It has a heavy fin, like the keel of a boat, running along the belly the entire length of the body. The throat is of orange color, and the head, though short and cums; is ornamented with two little flaps that look like ears. It can administer an electric shock as powerful as that of a small battery, A man yesterday touched it with his bare fingers.

THE NATIONAL GAME.

The contest at the Polo grounds yesterday between the New Yorks and Bostons was a very close one, and had it not been for the errors of Whitney, who pitched for the Bostons, it would have gone hard with the New York Clob. The New Yorks soored their only the New Yerk Club. The New Yorks scored their only earned run in the second innings, and the score stood at 1500 up to the seventh innings, when the Bostons tied the score by a single unearned run. The bone team narrowly escaped defeat in the ninth innings, a bad play by the visitors saving them, aided by a splendid eatch by Ward. In the tenth they got in the winning run after two men were out, through Ward's fine base running and Gunning's failure to put Connor out on atrices. As it was Connor nearly gave the Bostons a chance to close the tenth innings without a run. It was nip and tuck from first to last. Burdock's presence in
